

THE AMERICAN LEGION

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: CALENDAR, LOCAL BRIEFS

CONTACT: Charles M. Pickett, 203-903-4315, veterans@newhavenlegion.org

AMERICAN LEGION NEW HAVEN ANNOUNCES FORMATIONAL MEETING FOR VETERAN POST

NEW VETERAN GROUP FORMING: Get on the ground floor of a new American Legion post organizing in New Haven. Attend the Formational Meeting, 7:10 p.m. Aug. 21, Elks Lodge #25, 524 State St., Charles M. Pickett, 203-903-4315, veterans@newhavenlegion.org.

NEW HAVEN—The American Legion post organizing in New Haven will hold a Formational Meeting at 7:10 p.m., Aug. 21 at the New Haven Elks Lodge #25, at 524 State St. All veterans who have honorably served their country during a time of war are invited to make history and help build a “new century” Legion post from the ground up.

Co-organizer Charles M. Pickett said four Post-9/11 veterans came together earlier this year and held a series of informational meetings to gauge interest, recruit veterans, and learn about the American Legion. Aside from attending the Formational Meeting, interested veterans can learn about the new post at NewHavenLegion.org, on Facebook @NewHavenLegionCT, or call 203-903-4315.

PHOTO: Local Post-9/11 veterans and organizers Thania Rivera, Charles M. Pickett, Britt Conroy, and Biancesca Rivera are forming a new American Legion post in New Haven.

The American Legion is the largest wartime veterans service organization with 2.4 million members in nearly 14,000 posts in nearly every community in America.